On the go again!

WITH LUNCH IN PALM SPRINGS AT THE HILTON Wednesday, April 28, 2010

The Fabulous Palm Springs Follies celebrates happy days with their 19th season titled "Let the Good Times Roll!" They're bringing back the greatest good-time music of the '40s, '50s and '60s. They'll dance! They'll sing! They'll laugh . . . and we promise you'll want to do the same! From Big Bands and Swing to Doo-Wop, Motown and Pop, you played these songs on the jukebox, listened to them on our Hi-Fi's, and watched them performed on TV, always in glorious black-and-white. And, of course, Follies Impresario, Riff Markowitz, is your personal guide through the unique realm that is "Follies Land." He hasn't missed a performance in eighteen years and he isn't likely to start now! And that's fortunate because it wouldn't be a Follies without his unique blend of cutting-edge satire and Old World savoir-faire. And scheduled to headline is legendary talent, Mary Wilson! Before the show, you'll be treated to lunch at the Hilton Palm Springs. Join us for a great day of food, fun and entertainment in the desert!

Tours are designed for those 50 years of age & over.
